DIWALI PARENT COFFEE MORNING

This week, we hosted a Diwali Coffee Morning for all parents to attend to celebrate the festival of lights. It was great to see so many parents in attendance. Everyone enjoyed speaking to and engaging with other parents. Parents also enjoyed the special treats provided.

A pupil in Year Six also re-told the story of Rama and Sita, which everyone enjoyed.

STORY TIME FROM ACROSS THE WORLD

On Thursday, pupils enjoyed an afternoon of fun, laughs, songs and stories as storyteller CJ performed Story Time - retelling classic folktales from across the world. Pupils enjoyed listening to the adventures of the animals of the jungle as lion, monkey, elephant and mouse take part in mischief and fun, while the children of the city have some hilarious adventures of their own!

YEAR 6 RESIDENTIAL VISIT TO WALES

Now is your last chance to apply for the residential visit in July 2024.

Follow the QR code or let your Y6 class teacher know if you have not applied yet and wish to be considered. Names will be chosen at random next week.

Thank you
